

Rainy Day Clothes

CooCubby · English

Pitter-patter. Rain!

Pitter-patter went the rain on the window. "Rain!" said Cubby. "I want to jump in puddles."

Just my kiwi shirt?

Cubby wanted to go out in just his kiwi t-shirt. "Brrr," said Papa Bear. "Rain clothes first."

Dilly loves rain.

Dilly the duckling splashed up to the door. "Rain is my favourite! Boots, coat, and we go!"

A yellow raincoat.

Papa Bear held up a yellow raincoat. Cubby put his arms in. Snap, snap, snap went the buttons.

Wellies on!

Then wellies, green ones. Push, push... stomp! Cubby's feet were ready for puddles.

A hood for the head.

"Hood up," said Papa Bear. The hood went over Cubby's ears. Now only his nose felt the rain.

Splash! Splash! Splash!

Out they went. Splash! Splash! Splash! Dilly and Cubby jumped in every puddle they could find.

Wet nose, dry Cubby.

Cubby's nose was wet. But under the coat, his kiwi shirt was dry. "Rain clothes work!" he said.

Coat off. Boots off.

Back home, the coat came off, the boots came off, and wet things went by the door. Cubby wiggled his toes.

Warm and cosy.

Papa Bear made warm milk. Cubby sat in his dry shirt and listened to the rain. Pitter-patter. Cosy.
